

AARES

Christmas Sundowner

Australian Agricultural & Resource Economics Society

December 5th

The ACT Branch of AARES invites you to attend a Christmas Sundowner with guest speaker:

Hannes Gissurarson

Professor of Political Theory at the University of Iceland.

Hannes will describe the development and nature of the Icelandic system of Individual Transferable Quotas (ITQs) in fisheries. He will trace the political and economic nuances of ITQs as they have developed in Iceland.

Date	Thursday 5 December, 2002.
Venue	Brassey Hotel Macquarie Street, Barton
Time	6 pm arrival for drinks and cocktail food. Guest speaker commences 6.40 pm. Close of event 8pm
Cost	$15 AARES members; $20 non-members OR pay $80 for the function and receive 12 months AARES membership (includes AJARE subscription).
RSVP	Mon 2 nd Dec to Trish Gleeson ( tgleeson@abare.gov.au or phone 6272 2262)

The Christmas Sundowner will be our final event wrapping up what has been a very successful year for AARES ACT Branch. Some of the highlights for 2002 have included:

- AARES Annual Conference (approximately 300 delegates)
- Rural Property Rights Symposium (85 delegates)
- Sundowner with Dan Sumner – environmental implications of the US Farm Bill
- Lunchtime seminars covering such topics as:
  - Effect of the WTO and smallholders in developing countries
  - Australia's return to international agricultural research

